

Program

CS6 - 03 : Issue-driven and solution-oriented co-creation of knowledge partnering with marginalized people under poverty conditions
(16:30-18:30, Wednesday / 26-Sept. @Room 411)

Organizers:

Tetsu Sato (Ehime University, Japan), Dorotea Agnes Rampisela (Hasanuddin University, Indonesia), Bosco Rusuwa (University of Malawi, Malawi)

16:30-16:40 Introduction of the session (Tetsu Sato)

Part 1 (15 min presentation and 5 min discussion)

16:40- 17:00 Transdisciplinary approaches for creating innovative livelihood alternatives in high environmental loading areas affected by mercury pollution in Indonesia

Hiroki Kasamatsu* (Ehime University, Japan), Masayuki Sakakibara (Ehime University, Japan), Katsuya Tanaka (Shiga University, Japan), Satoru Komatsu (Nagasaki University, Japan) and Motoko Shimagami (Ehime University, Japan)

17:00-17:20 Innovative social systems to deliver water to the most vulnerable downstream farmers of irrigation channels in southern Sulawesi

Dorotea Agnes Rampisela (Hasanuddin University, Indonesia)

17:20-17:40 Sustainable Development Toolbox: an attempt to integrate autonomous innovations emerging from marginalized people to provide options to improve well-being and sustainability

Hidetomo Tajima* (Tajima Labo Co., Ltd. , Japan), Shion Takemura (Japan Fisheries Research & Education Agency: FRA), Juri Horii (Kyoto University, Japan), Mitsutaku Makino (FRA) and Tetsu Sato (Ehime University, Japan)

Part 2. (10 min x 3 presentations and 20 min discussion)

17:40-18:10 Presentation and comments of three innovators/translators from Malawi and Thailand

John Banana Mataware (Founding member of Cape Maclear Tour-guide Association, Malawi)

Brighten Ndawala (Founder and manager of Sinthana project, Malawi)

Sudarat Sangkum (Agri-Forestry Project Manager, WWF-Thailand)